

APPLICATION FORM FOR THE COURT OF APPEALS CJA LIST

INTRODUCTION

The District of Columbia Court of Appeals seeks highly qualified counsel to provide representation to indigent criminal appellants and juvenile respondents pursuant to D.C. Code § 11-2601 et seq., and the Plan for Furnishing Representation to Indigents Under the District of Columbia Criminal Justice Act, Title II § B(2). Applicants for inclusion on the Court's list of attorneys eligible for CJA appointments should be committed to providing timely and effective representation and must establish that they have sufficient qualifications to meet the requirements imposed by this Court through its rules and case law. Please see the attached memorandum titled "Obligations of Counsel" for a summary of the Court's expectations for attorneys who are approved for CJA appointments. Applicants also should be committed to improving and maintaining their advocacy skills. Please see Miscellaneous Order No. M-217-03 establishing continuing legal education requirements for CJA attorneys (<http://www.dcappeals.gov/dccourts/appeals/orders/order7.jsp>). Attorneys added to the list in 2005 will have a pro-rated CLE obligation for 2005.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- A. Membership in good standing in the D.C. Bar.
- B. Office within the metropolitan D.C. area
- C. Commitment to remain on the CJA appointments list for a minimum of two years.
- D. Commitment to complete the yearly CLE requirement and update the application yearly with new information. See Miscellaneous Order No. M-217-03.
- E. Completion of the attached questionnaire. If a question does not apply, please so state.
- F. Submission of a Certificate Concerning Discipline issued by the Office of Bar Counsel. (Please keep in mind that it may take several days for the Office of Bar Counsel to process requests for such a certificate.)
